Battles Worth Fighting For 2 Timothy 3:1-4:8

There is a battle for the _____ of the family.

There is a battle for the _____ of life.

There is a battle for the sacredness of _____.

There is a battle for the _____ of men.

Finally, there is a battle for the _____ of society.

1. There is a _____ rebellion we must confront.

2. There is a _____ recklessness we must condemn.

3. There is a scriptural _____ we must applaud.

4. There is a personal responsibility we must _____

5. There is an eternal _____ we must consider.

Growth Group Homework

_____ For the week of August 18, 2019 _____

Welcome back to the Fall quarter of Growth Groups! This quarter will conclude on October 20th. At this week's meeting, along with the homework, we suggest you share a potluck meal and review your Growth Group Covenant together. Have everyone in your group bring a specialty dish. With that in mind, the homework has been abbreviated. I pray you have a great quarter of intentional growth! -Pastor T

2. How do you think the average person on a street would respond to the idea that God is ALL good?

3. From this weekend's sermon, which one statement, point or insight was most helpful, challenging or even confusing to you personally?

DIGGING DEEPER

As Pastor Tom finished up the sermon this week on, "Battles Worth Fighting For," What do you think are some of the tougher things to fight for?

1. A cultural Rebellion (standing against it in love)

2. Doctrinal recklessness (not watering down your belief and trusting God with the hard stuff)

3. Scriptural revelation we must applaud (defending God's Word always)

4. The personal responsibility we must complete (actually serving, and not just being served)

5. And, The eternal reward we must consider (having an intentional heart for the lost)
